

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2515 – HB 2664

January 20, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases from 90 to 120 days the time within which a claimant of unemployment compensation may request waiver of an overpayment under certain circumstances.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Federal Expenditures - $7,600/One-Time

Assumptions:

- According to the Department of Labor and Workforce Development, the only costs for this bill are information technology (IT) costs to change the text of decisions generated by the mainframe computer system and computer application.
- A one-time expenditure of $7,600 for IT costs. Analysis costs of $1,600 (32 man hours x $49.80 per hour), program coding and testing costs of $4,000 (72 man hours x $55.28), appeals application modification costs of $2,000 (30 man hours x $68.00 per hour).
- Administrative funding from the U.S. Department of Labor provides for the necessary costs of proper administration of the Unemployment Insurance program. The programming changes required by this bill would be paid from these federal funds.
